SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM NETS $1878.00!

Our video programs are reaping great results. During March the following folks gave C/A $1878.00 in scholarship money to help sponsor needy children: Charles and Ann Flinchum—$100; Anonymous—$150; Mike and Lisa Ashley—$150; Doug and Gloria Bowman—$50; Shirley Mutter—$105; Wesley Hale—$50; Bill Farrington—$50; Kerry and Susie Stauffer—$105; Frances Stauffer—$48; Nancy Ferris—$100; Gary and Mary Lowe—$105; Amber Lemons—$500; Kathy Kennedy—$200; Marilyn Anderson—$110; Debbie Church—$105

This money pays the initial camp tuition of $105 as well as provides canteen, clothes, etc. for any camper in need. If you would like to help—mark your check, "Camp Scholarship."

PROJECTS FOR 2025

Each year at C/A, we try to improve the C/A campus for not only our campers but also for all visiting churches and groups. This year is no exception. Among our projects for 2025 is a pickleball court (although our bid came in at $25,500.00), new lawn furniture for our pool. This project will cost us between $3500.00 to $4000.00. We ordered two bottle filling stations, which Robert already installed. This cost around $3400.00. We also hope to install a new 36 ft by 12 ft pavilion in the lower parking lot below the cafeteria. This will set us back about $8,000.00. This new structure will serve as a teaching center during camp but will also be available as another pavilion for small groups that visit the C/A campus.

BAM RECEIVES $352.00 IN MARCH

GYM NEWS—GOOD AND BAD!

In our meeting with our contractor, we went ahead and asked for a “turn-key” bid to finish it all for us. The bad news is that the quote came in at basically $1.4 million. We were hoping it would be around one million because we have almost that much in our gym fund. Since we don’t want to borrow another $400,000, we are now seeking the cost of the pad 120 ft by 60 feet as well as the shell of the building. Our first bid came in at $650,000. The Executive Committee will be viewing our options in our monthly meeting and deciding how we will proceed.

We did, however, receive a couple of donations this past month for the gym. Our special thanks to Shirley Mutter who gave $53.00 and to Doug and Gloria Bowman for their $50.00 gift!

WORK DAYS TO BE ANNOUNCED!

Like last year when we installed our basketball goals, we will let everyone know when we will need help to work on our projects for 2025! Rick Townley and Gary Lamie will be heading up our pavilion project and we can definitely use help then!

Worship will be led by the Maple View Praise Team. Food following the rally!
