SOUP LABEL REPORT:

We're still receiving soup labels every month. This is a small but convenient way of helping C/A out. We purchased some real nice kitchen items last year with these labels. Save them for C/A and send them in - like the folks listed below did.

M/M Aubrey Johnson - app. 25
 Pearl Youngs - 6
 Lillian Shawver - 30
 Wilmyth and Virginia Anderson - 200
 M/M Tracy Christian - 98
 Wayne and Tessa Nelson - 110 (and some T-Spoons)

CHANGES IN AREA MINISTRIES

David Jones has resigned as Mapleview youth minister to move to Charlotte, N.C. Not only are we losing a 1987 Dean and a great friend, but we're also losing his lovely wife, Debbie, BCE Secretary. These two grand Christian workers will be sorely missed along with their talents.

Tommy Beavers has also resigned his youth ministry at Pine Grove to Continue to work on furthering his education but still staying in the Bluefield area.

INCOME DURING FIRST 9 MONTHS UP 2.6%

January through Oct. of this year, C/A has received $65,558.76 -up $1664.36 over this same time last year!

MEN'S FELLOWSHIPS BEGIN ANEW IN JAN.

Bruce Barilla has agreed to become the scheduling chairman for the 1988 area Men's Fellowships. The first will be held the third Saturday in Jan. We'll give you more details as to location and speaker next month.

C/A 1988 SCHEDULE ENCLOSED IN THIS CHRONICLE

We would like to remind all our readers to clip out the 1988 Calendar of Events and put it in a noticeable place like the refrigerator. We have so many who call up to ask when camp starts - or when a dinner is - well the dates are all there for you to plan around. Clip it before you forget - like I do!

THOUSANDAIRE CLUB HAS GOOD MONTH

Not only was November a good month for all our members sending in their $10 gifts, but we also added 6 new members. Our thanks to Bob and Ruth Smith, M/M Tommy Robbins, Hazel Crosa, M/M Joe Barilla, David Thompson, and the Pettrey Jr. Church for all joining the T-Club this past month.

If you forgot to send in your gift this past month, it's never to late - send it today!
