CAMP OFF TO GREAT START!

We had a safe and great first two weeks of camp. Our thanks to D.J. and Rod for their work on behalf of area youth. This month, Warren, Mike, Jeff, Danny, and Dick have great weeks planned for a variety of age groups. Please keep all the campers and staff in your daily prayers! Below is a schedule for the remaining weeks of camp. Remember to save yourself some money by sending in your card or even phoning in your registration. C/A camping is the greatest!

$4,750 WORTH OF PAVING COMPLETED!

The ball stop pavillion now has new paving and so does the road from the boys' dorms down to the gate! The total cost for this project was $4,750.00

MEMORIAL GIFT RECEIVED FOR MY DAD!

My loving thanks to Larry Poteat, Jr. out of Roanoke Virginia for sending in a generous $100 memorial gift for Tracy Christian!

VBS MONEY POURING IN!

Three churches that we know of have already used C/A as their VBS missionary this summer. Springville sent their gift of $176 toward the camp scholarship program. We also received large gifts from Horsepen ($217.74) and from Lindsie ($174.10). Thanks everyone.

If you want to use C/A as your missionary we do have a tape to show the kids some of the campus.

WORK DONE ON POOL WATER LINES!

In order to bring us on line for chlorine to be in both our pavillions, we had to switch water lines around. The cost was $547.70.
