CAMPFIRE PAVILION WORK TO BEGIN IN SEPTEMBER

Our Grundy contractor is still tied up with jobs in Grundy but we hope to go ahead and do the necessary cutting of trees for the access road and moving of dirt to level our location spot out. This dirt will be hauled up on the chapel hill and used as fill-in for the left side to make room for additional parking. We will keep you informed on the progress of this much needed and much anticipated project.

IS C/A TO GO SMOKE FREE?

Due to the number of cigarette butts being thrown down on campus at church picnics, reunions, etc., we asked the August General Board about having the C/A campus go completely tobacco free. We had six churches present at the August meeting and they all were in favor of this idea. We would like to hear from you and the rest of our supporting churches. We think it is such a bad example to our young people to see the C/A campus littered with these cigarette butts.

GOSPEL SING WAS GREAT!

We had 9 great groups who thrilled the 164 area Christians who attended the August 25th C/A Gospel Sing. A special thanks to all of our singers and to everyone who attended!

CHANGES IN AREA MINISTRIES:

MEMORIAL: Kenneth and Beverly Littleford are the new ministering family at the Memorial Church of Christ in Princeton. Kenneth began his duties around the middle of August.

TANNERSVILLE: Harry Hendricksen will begin his duties here the first week of September, replacing Kevin Taylor. Harry and his wife Joy live on the C/A campus.

HAM SUPPER IS SEPTEMBER 7TH

Don Whitt will be playing his special style of music for all our ham supper attendees at 5:30 until 6:00, when we will have another great meal served by Chief Chefs Jonce and Don! You won't want to miss both special treats - - so TAKE A COUNT AND CALL IN THE NUMBER COMING NO LATER THAN MONDAY, SEPT. 2! Those not calling in will have to be at the back of the line!

CAMP LOSES ANOTHER GREAT FRIEND!

We bid a sad farewell to a great C/A supporter and personal friend - Edith Neely. She joined the C/A T-Club in March, 1988 and has faithfully supported the camp since that time. She was one of "The Golden Girls" from down in Narrows! Her other two sisters - - the other "golden girls" sorely miss her - as we do!

AREA PREACHER'S MEETING TO RESTART!

After our regular summer lay-off, our monthly preacher's meeting will be back on tract Sept. 9th at 11:00 A.M. at Ponderosa. We would like to encourage all our preachers to attend.
