FLAG FOOTBALL TOURNAMENT IS SEPT. 20TH

Excitement is building for the 2nd Annual C/A Flag Football Tournament. We have already heard from some churches that only had 1 team last year that will have 2 this year. Remember the deadline to get your rosters in so we can figure our double elimination brackets is Sept. 13th. The first games begin at 9:00 a.m. so please arrive on time! The dust and darkness will probably settle around 9:00 that night before the winners are determined! We will have plaques for first, second and third place plus one for the most Christ-like team! Come out and support your team while enjoying Food & Fellowship with other area Christians.

COUNTRY FRIED STEAK DINNER IS SEPT. 13TH.

C/A is offering a country fried steak dinner on Sept. 13th beginning at 6:00 but DonWhitt will begin playing music with sing-a-long at 5:30! WE NEED A COUNT FROM THOSE WHO PLAN TO ATTEND NO LATER THAN SUNDAY SEPT 7th! Those who just show up will be asked to eat last in case we don't have enough food!

APPALACHIAN CHILDREN'S CONVENTION AT C/A ON SEPT. 12-13TH!

It's Sept. 12-13th! It's for grades 3-6! It's fun, food, fellowship, games and much more! What is it? It is the first ever Appalachian Children's Convention to be held at C/A on Sept. 12-13th. Speakers include Justin May and Paul Goldsworthy with Philip Mullins doing worship. The cost is only $15.00; registration is from 5-7 with the first main session at 7:00. The convention ends at 3:00 on Saturday. For more information contact Scooter Breisch at (304) 320-8554 or Zack Thompson at (540) 641-0726

CAMP SEASON SETS NEW ATTENDANCE RECORDS!

The 2008 camp season broke even another attendance record with 668 children present and 890 with all the staff and helpers counted in! These both surpass our 642 & 871 records from last year. This is indeed a miracle considering the economy! A special thanks to all the deans and their staffs, our supporting churches, and all the other volunteers who made it a memorable year! See the back page of the Chronicle for a complete breakdown of the stats!

SCHOLARSHIP FUND RECEIVES $100.⁰⁰!

Chris Clark and cwcit.com sent in his usual generous donation of $100.⁰⁰ for the camp scholarship fund. This fund without drawing out what we spent this season is now over $9,000.⁰⁰ thanks to generous help like this!

T-CLUB HAS NEW MEMBER!

We would like to welcome Carlton Whitley from the Falls Mills congregation as our newest T-Club member. He has pledged to give $10.⁰⁰ twice a year!

BUILDINGS TO BE PAINTED THIS FALL! HELP NEEDED

If YOU like to paint, have we got a job for you! We had hoped to have our building painted by now - but we are planning on doing that this fall by hand. We could use a lot more hands - call if you would be willing to help! It will most likely happen during September and October!

AUGUST EVENTS WELL ATTENDED!

As we prepare this Chronicle, it looks like a great crowd of young people will be at the Back to School Luau as well as the gospel sing. Hope you were able to attend.

AREA CALENDAR OF EVENTS:

- Sept. 7 ~ Homecoming at Falls Mills with Tom Reid; regular services with meal at 1:00 p.m.
- Sept. 7 ~ Homecoming at Montcalm - Richard Hodges will be the speaker on Sunday Morning. Meal following worship service.
- Sept. 10 ~ James/Jude classes begin each Wednesday night at Crossroads Church of Christ in Wytheville at 7:00 with Rick Mathena teaching.
- Sept. 12-13 ~ ACC at C/A (see article for details)
- Sept. 14-17 ~ Revival and Homecoming at Lerona with Todd Kellison on Sunday morning and youth emphasis night at 7:00 with Rick Mathena; Richard Hodges on Monday night, Jim Stanley on Tuesday night and Donald Heneger on Wednesday night.
- Sept. 14 ~ Maple View Homecoming with Keith Keeran- meal to follow services.
- Sept. 19-21 ~ Second Coming Seminar with Rick Mathena at Goodwyn's Chapel 7-9 on Friday and Saturday nights and regular church services on Sunday.
