$3500 RECEIVED FOR GYM AT GOSPEL SING / CELEBRATION

The C/A gospel sing and celebration, held on Sunday evening, August 29th, received a $3500 offering for the gym fund from the 68 who attended! At 5:15 we had the cake cutting ceremony followed by six singers and/or singing groups. Our special thanks to the Pettry choir, Stephanie Lilly and little daughter, Kevin and Leslie Alvis, Patricia Comer, Susie and Angela Stauffer, and Woody Bailey for providing the music and to Josh May for setting up and running sound for us at 6:00.

PEAKS VIEW CHRISTIAN CHURCH IS NEWEST SUPPORTER

The Peaks View Christian Church in Bedford, Virginia called to inform us we will be receiving $100.00 a month from here on out. (I held a seminar here back in the spring and have a great friend there, Jeff Reed, originally from the Pettry congregation.) They will also be sending their kids to camp next summer.

CAMP REUNION REPORT!

When all the dust settled we had over 60 people from six different states come to our camp reunion held on campus August 6-8. Misty Carpenter and Buddy Goins put together a great program. Everyone who attended really enjoyed the messages and the fellowship. Our thanks to our two organizers, speakers, and all who came!

APPALACHIAN TEEN WEEKEND HAS 67 TEENS AND 90 TOTAL WITH STAFF

Our special thanks to Jacob McKlarney for stepping in and running our ATW. We had 67 teenagers attend and with staff we had a total of 90. Philip Mullins did a great job developing our theme, "Unmasked!" The Maple View MP3 Band also did an outstanding job with the music. We appreciate Joanna heading up the kitchen with Kathleen Stiltner volunteering as SWAT for the "24 hours on the mountain!"

FIRST OF CAMP REPORTS ON BACK

Most everyone on campus was just glad to be able to attend camp at C/A this summer! In so many different ways it was a great season. See the first of a couple of reports on the back of this Chronicle.

SEPTEMBER 30TH A SPECIAL DAY FOR RICK

The last day of September, I will finish up my 41st year as camp manager for Christian Acres. It has been a wonderful "trip" for me. On October 1st, 1980, I arrived on campus and after a brief survey of our supplies, I found 1 teaspoon in the kitchen. That's how we began — and wow! Has the Lord blessed us and C/A in our journey!!! Thank everyone!

Gifts and Prayers!
